Course Programme 2017 for Master Programmes and Advanced Courses

1. The Embassy of Sri Lanka in The Netherlands is pleased to forward herewith the following Brochure "KIT, Health and Education Course Programme 2017" received from the Royal Tropical Institute (KIT) in Amsterdam.
2. The Course Programme consists of Master Programmes in Public and International Health, Advanced Courses and E-learning courses which will begin in the spring of 2017. KIT aims to equip health professionals to address public health challenges around the world.
3. It was informed that for a number of KIT Courses in 2017, the NL Fellowship Programme (NFP) offers scholarships and the deadline for NFP is 18th October 2016. For funding options please see www.kit.nl/fellowships. More information to the course criteria are given in the enclosed brochure, and also the website, www.kit.nl/training.
4. It will be appreciated if the contents of this brochure is given wide publicity amongst appropriate personnel, enabling Sri Lanka to benefit from such programmes.
